

2011 Annual Queensland Aged Care Conferences

You are invited to hear from the foremost authorities on issues affecting the Aged Care community:

Noel Whittaker Co-founding Director, Whittaker Macnaught

Noel is the author of 20 bestselling books, appears frequently in every major newspaper in the country, and broadcasts on over 50 radio stations each week. He has been named Australian Investment Planner of the Year (1988), been awarded the Australian Centenary Medal (2003), and in 2011 was made a Member of the Order of Australia for "outstanding service and commitment to the financial industry".

Brian Herd Partner, Carne Reidy Herd Lawyers

As Partner of Carne Reidy Herd Lawyers, Brian acts for aged care providers across the full spectrum of site development, transfer of places and facilities, establishment and operational issues, structural change, complaints resolution, corporate governance, legal compliance and risk and reputation management.

Rachel Lane Executive Manager – Aged Care Solutions, Colonial First State

Rachel is well known and respected within the aged care and financial planning industries, and regularly facilitates workshops for the Aged Care Association of Australia (ACAA), and is highly sought after as a presenter at aged care conferences and seminars.

And the official launch of Aged Care - Who Cares? the new book by Rachel Lane and Noel Whittaker.
